Rev. Glass Has Again Resigned

Rev. James G. Glass, now at Seawane, Tenn., with Mrs. Glass and family, has again tendered his resignation as pastor of Grace Episcopal church in this city. The members of Grace church, and Rev. Glass' many friends, have received this information regretfully.

In a letter to the vestry of the church Rev. Glass says: "I am sure that you will not regret more than I do the sending in again of my resignation as rector of Grace church, which I must ask you to accept to take effect December 1, 1916. "For reasons which I cannot well explain by letter, this seems to be the only logical course to pursue, and I cannot myself know whether or not it is the best thing for all concerned. "I wish to place on record my appreciation of the patient kindness and consideration you have always shown me, as well as for your efforts to co-operate in furthering the interest of the church in Ocala."

The Affleck Millinery Parlor opened last evening for its formal exhibit of beautiful foreign and domestic styles for fall and winter. Between the hours of 7 and 10 o'clock the parlor was a glow of unusual brilliancy, it being trimmed with ferns and palms which formed an appropriate setting for the beautiful pattern hats on display. Sometime before the opening hours the patrons of this popular establishment began to assemble to view the lavish display of rich autumn and winter colorings. The display included ideas in a variety of artistic toques, beretta toques, oval shapes, jaunty Robin Hoods, in fact hats in every conceivable shape and size ranging from the closest fitting to the remarkably large picturesque portrait hat. Some of the pattern were quite unique while the display as a whole portrayed the most careful selection and most artistic work in their creation.

Mrs. Ellis, assisted by Miss Daisy Huff, of the well known millinery firm of E. L. Rhodes Co., of Atlanta, the talented trimmer of the establishment, received and entertained her guests in her usual pleasing manner. The display, last evening, was unusually attractive and most artistically arranged in the large and spacious apartment that constitutes the firm's new home. The Affleck Millinery Parlor has always followed the motto "excel in all branches of millinery art" and last night it was borne out to the fullest extent. The wish of the firm is to please and Mrs. Ellis, the proprietress, received many compliments on the excellent display.

During the evening punch was served by Miss Mamie Counts, one of the efficient assistants, while a graphophone poured forth gentle strains of music over the assemblage. Everyone who attended enjoyed the evening extremely and were highly elated over the exclusive styles shown.

One lady told the Star, rather dolefully, yesterday, that most of the housekeepers of her acquaintance were busy hunting cooks, a number of the colored girls having left their positions to attend school.

Rev. J. M. Gross enjoyed a visit Monday from Rev. A. E. Householder, presiding elder of this district. Brethren Gross and Householder, veterans in the ministry, formed when young men in the old Holston conference a friendship which the passage of years has only strengthened.

Mrs. George Campbell was quite ill yesterday afternoon, but the Star is glad to say she was much better today.

Miss Minnie Gamsby is home from a visit to her brother, Mr. C. L. Gamsby, in Chattanooga.

The Baptist Sewing Circle had a pleasant and useful session at the church yesterday afternoon.

Mr. J. K. Dickson left yesterday afternoon for Anderson, S. C., where he will meet his wife and little daughter and accompany them home.

Miss Lilian McCheney of Arcadia arrived this afternoon, on her way to the Florida College for Women, and stopped for a visit to Misses Gladys and Theo Wallis.

Ocala misses a number of its brightest young ladies today. Misses Mabel Meffert, Gladys Martin, Dorothy Schreiber, Katie Mae Eagleton, Ava Lee Edwards and Mildred Essex left yesterday for the Woman's College at Tallahassee, and Miss Stella Camp departed for Hollins Institute in Virginia.

The missionary society of the Presbyterian church will hold its monthly meeting Thursday, at 4 o'clock at the church.

Mr. and Mrs. A. H. Doran and daughter were in the city yesterday and today, and have gone to Gainesville, where they will make their home. They are from Freiburg, Ill. Mr. Doran is an ex-newspaper man, tired of the game after fifteen years, and will conduct a small vegetable and poultry farm in Florida.

MOVING PICTURE FEATURES

Moving pictures of the Second regiment, F. N. G., will be shown at the Temple this afternoon and tonight. Company A, Ocala boys, appear prominently in the pictures.

Not often has the Temple had a more entertaining program than it had last night. Miss Louise Huff in "The Reward of Patience," delighted those who saw her. Gainesville should be proud of this delightful young actress. She is pretty, and acts with commendable reserve.

Today Carlyle Blackwell and Ethel Clayton will be seen here in the Brady-World feature, "A Woman's Way."

NOTICE TO EASTERN STARS

The Eastern Star sewing circle will meet with Mrs. Chas. E. Simmons Wednesday at 3 o'clock at her home, corner Sanchez and South Fifth streets.

FAMILY AVOIDS SERIOUS SICKNESS

By Being Constantly Supplied With Theford's Black-Draught.

McDuff, Va.—"I suffered for several years," says Mrs. J. B. Whitaker, of this place, "with sick headache, and stomach trouble."

Ten years ago a friend told me to try Theford's Black-Draught, which I did and I found it to be the best family medicine for young and old.

I keep Black-Draught on hand all the time now, and when my children feel a little bad, they ask me for a dose, and I do them more good than any medicine they ever tried.

We never have a long spell of sickness in our family, since we commenced using Black-Draught."

Theford's Black-Draught is purely vegetable, and has been found to regulate weak stomachs, and digestion, relieve indigestion, colic, wind, nausea, headache, sick stomach, and similar symptoms.

It has been in constant use for more than 70 years, and has benefited more than a million people.

Your druggist sells and recommends Black-Draught. Price only 25c. Get a package to-day.
